

Seven rules for writing code with an AI agent

Start with the problem

Make a very specific prompt

Work on one block at a time

Understand every line

Treat coding with an agent as a conversation

Write code that tests the code

Control the style

You are the author